In 2014 the foundation supported the following projects:

- Three orphanages and a school in Kenya run by the Blessed Generation organization. The Catz Charity Foundation has worked with this organization for a long time and supports these orphanages as they strive to become self-supporting. In 2014 the foundation financed a water pump, which is important for the provision of drinking water and also helps the orphanages to grow different kind of crops that they can eat or sell. As part of a three-year agreement a donation was made to cover several returning costs.

- An agriculture project started by the organization Silent Work that helps children in Africa to create a future. The Catz Charity Foundation financed a farm wagon and its shipment to Mauritania. Several farmers contributed a variety of farming tools, which were shipped together with the farm wagon. The farm wagon and tools will help to provide food and teach the children about farming methods.

- A rehabilitation program in India for young people with leprosy started by the Leprazending organization. The program finances the study costs of eight young people, giving them a chance to learn a profession and find a job in Indian society.

- Financing computers, furniture, sewing machines and books for a new skill center in India developed by Stichting Ladder. Underprivileged youth can get training in this center to develop the skills they need to find a job.

- A donation to Médecins Sans Frontières (Doctors Without Borders) for their work in Africa on fighting the Ebola crisis.

In 2013 the Catz Charity Foundation supported the following projects:

- financial support of the Blessed Generation organization, which runs three orphanages and a school in Kenya. Blessed Generation also runs an outreach program for families in need and street children. Over a period of three years, the Catz Charity Foundation will donate € 40,000 per annum;

- financing of the construction of a water well and solar panels in Ruiru, Kenya, such that the orphanage has clean drinking water and reduced costs of electricity;

- a donation of € 10,000 to Médecins Sans Frontières (Doctors Without Borders) for their work in the destructed areas in the Philippines after typhoon Haiyan;

- a donation of € 1,400 for fuel costs of two support transports to Rumania.
